I, the undersigned, agree to secure the services of Rev. AdaRA Walton for the purposes of energy healing at $65 per hour, sessions to be mutually agreed upon before commencement.

I agree to pay Rev. AdaRA Walton, in full, before commencement of each session.

I understand that by consulting an energist, we will be dealing with energy body related problems and solutions exclusively.

I understand that no physical healing is promised and there is no claim of cure for any form of diagnosed illness in any way.

I understand that there will be no physical or material diagnosis, nor prescription of physical or material remedies. All our work together will be strictly energetic and energy body centered.

I understand that the treatment of the energy body has varying effects in individual cases, and we cannot predict the effect of any energy treatment, nor what side effects will emerge.

I fully understand that I am responsible for my animal's physical, mental and energetic well-being, and will consult with the appropriate professionals as and when this becomes necessary.

I have read and understood the terms of this consent form, and I am happy to go ahead and discover more about the causes and effects of energy interventions with the help of my practitioner.

Energy Healing For Animals – What is it and What can I expect?

Animals, like humans have a physical and an energy body. We can't see the energy body but it's very real. When the energy body gets hurt or injured through an injury, accident or abuse, the energy flow can become blocked with low energy resulting. The animal will exhibit signs of suffering or odd behavior.

Energy body injuries show up in an animal as anxiety, aggression, listlessness, sadness and general loss of condition. The animal may display a weak immune system, loss of appetite and become susceptible to infections and illness.

Energy healing can't replace physical healing but energy healing is a modality in its own right. I do ask that you consult with both your Vet and your Energy Healer for full healing of your animal.

Modern Energy Healers like Rev. Adara can find the injury in the energy body and use techniques to address the energy block, clear the energy, add energy and strengthen the animal's energy body and give spiritual healing. This is critical for the animal's long-term overall health and spiritual well-being.
